

CLEVER PITCHERS GET POOR SUPPORT

Norfolk Shows Up Weak in Field—Boston Wins by Score of 4 to 0.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Norfolk, Va., April 6.—Helpless before the clever twirling of Pitcher Brock, and showing up poorly at times in the field, the Tars were an easy mark for the Boston Nationals this afternoon by the score of 4 to 0. The excellent showing indicated by the closeness of the score, was due to the clever twirling of Finneran and Pool, the latter completely fooling the big leaguers. With any kind of support the game would have ended 1 or 2 to 0. At the start-off Skipper Babb remained out of the game, sending Lutz to third, and playing Roddy, a new man, at second, and Schaffer, another new man, in the outfield. The shift was not satisfactory, and in the fifth Babb went to third, shifted Lutz to second, played Wallace in right and the showing made was quite an improvement.

The good work of Finneran pleased the fans, but when Southpaw Pool began to send them over, literally having the Bean-Eaters at his mercy, the fans recognized the good work, and boosted with a will. The poor work of the team at times, behind both Finneran and Pool, came in for repeated touch-ups. Umpire Nugent also failed to please, and was handed a little talk from the bleachers.

Score by Innings: R. H. E.
Boston 2 0 0 1 0 0 0 1 4 5 1
Batteries: Finneran, Pool, Brock and Phelan; Frock and Rariden. Time, 1:35. Attendance, 200. Umpire, Nugent.

OUTLOOK BRIGHT FOR TRACK TEAM

Alexandria, Va., April 6.—The Episcopal High School was very successful on the track during the winter season, winning two relay races, one with Western High School, of Washington, and the other with Baltimore City College, in which race Captain Wallace picked up thirty yards in a distance of 300 yards, and nosed out his man, winning for the Episcopal High a very sensational race.

Episcopal has about forty athletes going through daily practice. Among them the following are noted prominently: J. H. Cronly, who last year ran the 110 and 220-yard hurdles, also first man on the relay team; Captain Wallace, who has outclassed many good runners in the 440-yard dash and runs last on the relay; Phillips and Speer, 440-yard men, and second and third runners, respectively, on the relay team.

Robertson and Wilson are doing very promising work in the half-mile. Buckle and Hutter are expected to handle the weights for Episcopal this year, and A. B. Kinsolving II. shows great promise as a high jumper. Episcopal expects to enter a meet at the University of Virginia, and also to have a four-cornered meet with some of the Washington schools.

ROANOKE LOSES TO PHILADELPHIA

Virginia Leaguers Show Up in Better Form Than Athletics.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Roanoke, Va., April 6.—The Philadelphia Athletics defeated the Roanoke Club here this afternoon in a pretty game, by a score of 6 to 2. Both teams played steady and consistent ball. The weather conditions were most favorable. The Athletics did not show up in such form as was exhibited by the Roanoke club, having five errors to their credit, while the locals had but three. Mack's men scored all of their runs in one inning. Philadelphia hit for night for Richmond for two games.

ST. LOUIS CLUB NOT FOR SALE.

Mrs. Britton Will Retain Control of National League Organization.
St. Louis, Mo., April 6.—The St. Louis National League ball club is not for sale, said Schuyler Britton yesterday. Mrs. Britton heard her husband make the statement, and nodded her head affirmatively.

Mrs. Britton has decided to retain the ball club, continued Mr. Britton. "She has received numerous offers for the property, but all offers were turned down. The baseball property is not for sale at least not for the time being of the stockholders of the club called within a day or so, and a new president selected. My wife has not selected anybody for the position so far."

The bearing of children is frequently followed by poor health for the mother. This supreme crisis of life finding her physical system unprepared for the demands of nature, leaves her with weakened resistive powers and sometimes chronic ailments. This can be avoided if

CECIL WILL COACH HAMPDEN SIDNEY

Star Virginia Player Secured for Football Coach—Schedule Announced.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Hampden-Sidney, Va., April 6.—Hampden-Sidney considers itself fortunate in securing as coach for the football team of 1911, B. R. Cecil. He has been for four years the tower of strength in the University of Virginia's line, and his work has done much toward winning the great victories which are recorded by this venerable institution.

Hampden-Sidney is highly pleased with the prospects for a winning team next fall, as there are only two men of last season's team who will graduate. From present outlook there is not a position on the team which cannot be filled by men who are now in college, and at the same time have one of the best teams Hampden-Sidney has had for many years.

Shelby M. Jett, who has played in the line for the last two years, will lead the team. Last year he played great ball at center. His fine example and his steady head will do much for the team of next season.

Schedule of Games.
Manager W. S. Hundley has arranged the following schedule, which in every respect, seems to be one of the best in the history of the college:

September 23—University of Virginia, at Charlottesville.
September 30—Virginia Polytechnic Institute, at Blacksburg.
October 7—Medical College of Virginia, at Hampden-Sidney.
October 14—Washington and Lee University, at Lexington.
October 21—University College of Medicine, at Hampden-Sidney.
October 28—Richmond College, at Richmond (championship).
November 11—Randolph-Macon College, at Richmond (championship).
November 18—William and Mary College, at Hampden-Sidney (championship).

BIGBIE DENIES THAT HE HAS SIGNED WITH SUFFOLK TEAM

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Lynchburg, Va., April 6.—Frank Bigbie, who played last year in the Eastern Carolina League with the Raleigh team, denies the statement sent out yesterday from Suffolk that he was expected to report to the team there in the Tidewater League.

Bigbie recently secured his release from the Raleigh team, and he says he is still a free agent. In addition to this, he says he has not heard a word from the Suffolk team, nor does he expect to play there.

Bigbie has been coaching the Hampden-Sidney team for the past month, and he does not know what he will do for the coming season, but he denies absolutely the statement from Suffolk that he had signed with the outlaw team there.

Virginia Harned To-Night.
The distinguished American actress, Virginia Harned, is booked to appear at the Academy to-night in her latest successful play, "The Woman He Married," from the pen of Herbert Bashford, the well-known playwright. "The Woman He Married" is a drama of today, which brings forth Miss Harned as an artist-model actress-wife, a character similar to "Tilly," the Du Maurier role, that she originated and in which she made her first great success. Miss Harned is touring this season under her own personal direction, and has provided a massive scenic production, and an excellent supporting company. Her engagement promises to be one of the best offerings of the present season.

Wednesday Club Stars.

Unprecedented interest evinced by the public in the forthcoming May music festival of the Wednesday Club has stimulated the managers and directors to even greater endeavors than were planned when the preparations for the music feast were begun.

The singers and their other trainers, too, are showing the effect of the great stimulus of public interest, and the rehearsals are going forward with amazing spirit and enthusiasm.

The famous soloists now under contract to appear in the May music festival include Mme. Alma Gluck, the Metropolitan Opera Company's stellar lyric soprano; Miss Florence Wickham, who was featured in the great contralto role of Mundry in Henry W. Savage's production of "Parsifal"; the golden-throated tenor, Riccardo Martin; Pasquale Amato, the celebrated operatic baritone, and Herbert Witherspoon, the distinguished American basso.

Herbert Witherspoon is a native of Buffalo. He is a B. A. of Yale. He owes his college education to his voice. During the period of his preparation for Yale and his course there, he sang in church, beginning with soprano (he had quite a reputation as a boy soprano), following that alto, then singing tenor and finally bass. This seems almost unbelievable, but it is, nevertheless, a fact. He began his career by singing for one and a half years with the Castle Square Opera Company, and for ten years afterwards devoted himself entirely to concert singing and work, achieving a distinguished reputation in the field of art. In order to give an idea of Mr. Witherspoon's status it is only necessary to say that he frequently sang at the Cincinnati and Worcester festivals in this country, and with the Sheffield and Norwich festivals in England, as well as with Henry Wood's orchestra in London. In fact, he has sung with every orchestra of any note in the United States and Canada. It was in 1908 that he was engaged at the Metropolitan, where from year to year he has established himself more firmly in the esteem of the public and good will of his comrades. Mr. Witherspoon is tall, handsome, over six feet in height and of lithic, athletic build.

Atlanta Gets Corbin.
Atlanta, Ga., April 6.—Manager McAleer of the Washington Senators has turned over to the Atlanta team, in the Southern League, as "ground rent man," Outfielder Fred Corbin, who played with Akron, in the Ohio-Pennsylvania League, last year. Corbin is subject to recall at the end of the season. He has been hitting over .300 with Washington during the spring season.

Griffin Is Outpointed.
New York, April 6.—Jon Bayardar Franks, who fights under the title of "England's Hebrew Champion," outpointed Charlie Griffin, the Australian featherweight, in a ten-round bout at the National Sporting Club of America to-night.

RACE TRACK BETTING WINS SIGNAL VICTORY

Two Bookmakers, Arrested at Jamestown, Dismissed by Magistrate—Commonwealth is Without Appeal of Any Kind.

Norfolk, Va., April 6.—Race-track betting in Virginia won a signal victory to-night, when Magistrate K. Q. Backus gave a decision dismissing from custody Fred Miller and William Hickey, laymen, who were arrested at the close of the first day's races at the Jamestown Jockey Club's tracks yesterday, for alleged bookmaking, in violation of the Virginia statutes. This is practically final, because even should a special grand jury, which meets on Monday next take up the cases, they are not likely under the law, and being misdemeanors must be remanded back to magistrate's court for trial.

The testimony to-day showed that there was no special place where the laymen worked; that they occupied no stands or specific spot for betting, and that the clerk who recorded the bets was nothing more than a stakeholder. The defense contended that under the law, only an "occupant" who puts up a stand or booth, and therefrom conducts betting, commits an act in violation of Virginia laws. The defense held further that the laymen were not "occupants," but were simply on the track at the pleasure of the occupants or owners.

Commonwealth's Attorney R. C. Marshall made a big fight for conviction, but lost. He intimated further possible proceedings against the race-track association, but no matter what is done, action must either originate with or come back to the magistrate's court for trial, and the Commonwealth is without appeal of any kind.

Justice Backus would not be expected to reverse himself, and the Jamestown races will proceed to their conclusion.

The Racing Association, through the defendant laymen, were represented in court this evening by two leading criminal lawyers, Thomas H. Wilcox and R. Randolph Hicks.

Drucke was working his fadeaway ball to a finish, but the Colts hit him pretty freely at that.

Just a few days' more work, and all of that fright stuff will be gone.

Roanoke nearly trimmed the Athletic second team. Let's go them one better and do the job.

The Regal Shoe Company refuses to be bound any longer to the hoary old tradition of the Shoe Trade that standard shoes must necessarily be built to fit certain arbitrary prices—$3.50, $4.00, $4.50, $5.00, and so on.

It refuses to believe any longer that a shoe that can be sold at, say, $3.85, must be "built up" to sell at $4.00, or else "skinned down" to sell at $3.50.

It has announced that every Regal Shoe made hereafter will be priced at Cost, Delivered to the Customer, Plus 5 Per Cent. Commission

This may figure out in "even money" or it may not, just as it happens. But, however it figures, the amount will invariably be verified by certified public accountants and stamped on the shoe at the factory, and that will be the price you pay.

In justice to yourself you should not be asked to pay more. In justice to the shoe it should not be "skinned down" to cost less.
